LUNCH POEMS

A new Wednesday lunchtime poetry series at The University of Leeds, starting October 7th 2015.

“Every day we should hear at least one little song, read one good poem, see one exquisite picture, and, if possible, speak a few sensible words.” - Goethe

Hear staff and students from The University of Leeds discussing their favourite poets and reading from their poems. A 30 minute break in your working day and a chance to discover writers who will inspire you.
